Introduction

A photographic workshop in Tuscany to have images of unforgettable landscapes and wonderful cities. I offer customized group or individual photo tours that will allow you to capture a land rich in beauty, history and iconic landscapes. As a native of the region, my tour will provide you with the opportunity to explore the region from unique perspectives and optimal viewpoints. This photography tour is a classic itinerary to any photographer, any level.

This photography tour is a classic itinerary of Tuscany to any photographer, any level.

Itinerary

Every day we will make radial journeys out to photograph the countryside or the cities of art. Undoubtedly there are many interesting places but we will hardly see a tiny part of this land. However I have chosen the best for you as a local photographer. So our base for the trip will be between the wonderful rural area in the heart of Val D'Orcia and Florence. It is a fantastic place with spectacular views, picturesquely situated between the famous rolling Tuscan hills and cypress trees.

ARRIVE

Day 1: We meet you in Florence. Check in at hotel and a remark briefing , take a rest. Then after lunch small photo tour in center town of Florence

Day 2: We start our journey early to photograph the hills of Florence and his small ancient villages outside of town.

After lunch, small rest and then at Sunset shooting at main view of the city.

Day 3: Right after the breakfast, we depart to the heart of rural Tuscany. We will stop in Monteriggioni and then Val D'Orcia. We check in to our hotel, have some rest, unpack gear and meet our first sunset!

Day 4: We'll have our morning shooting session near famous location Vitaletta in Val D'Orcia. After the breakfast we'll have a discussion in photo composition and create a shooting plan for the next days. After the lunch, we'll drive to Montalcino for an afternoon shooting session from the walls and an evening street shooting afterwards.

Day 5: Siena: In the morning we will shooting around the city at Crete Senesi. Here you will capture marvelous landscape. Then toward the amazing city to capture some gems of renaissance era from Piazza del Campo to the Duomo.

Day 6: Volterra and San Gimignano: Early in the morning we going first to Volterra and then on the way back home we stop in San Gimignano, the town of tower. Those two small ancient villages are in one of most amazing hills and vineyard of the region.

Day 7: Yes, unfortunately this is our last day . We'll have our morning session near the hotel, though. Then breakfast, and after that we pack our bags and leave for Florence

Why a Photographic tour in Tuscany

Thanks to their experience, their knowledge of the place and their advice you will be able to capture the best moments of light, refine your shooting technique, learn to plan your next photographic exits, deepen digital post-production techniques, learn small and large tricks to always make the best possible photographs.

This Workshop will provide you with a series of skills and knowledge that will allow you to capture all the beauty of the places you will be lucky enough to visit, organizing your resources in the best possible way, using the best shooting and post-production techniques, exploiting any light and weather conditions. As always in our travels the common passion for photography and the desire to enjoy the beauty of the places will allow you to create a fantastic atmosphere in the group, where everyone can relax and have fun, tell their experience, ask for advice, and above all give free rein to the desire to photograph without limitations, thanks to the timing shared by all.
